THIS WEEK AT THE CINEMATHEQUE

Tel Aviv International Student Film Festival

Featuring both distinguished guests from the international film industry and young filmmakers from film schools across the globe, the event offers screenings of over 100 short films from 27 different countries. Special guests include production designer Antxon Gomez (Spain), film editors Fred Raskin (U.S.) and Janus Billeskov Jansen (Denmark), and others. Highlights from the festiva include a multidisciplinary art event in honor of Stanley Kubrick's epic sci-fi "2001: A Space Odyssey" (Thur at 21.30); a competition of short films on freedom of speech; film tributes to Greek cinema and contemporary Nigerian cinema; artist workshops; and more. There will be free outdoor screenings in selected local neighborhoods, including Donovan Park, the Dov Hoz community center, the boulevard in the Montefiori neighborhood and Shenkin Park. June 18-24, at Tel Aviv Cinematheque. Tickets and details: <http://www.taufilmfest.com>

From the Austrian film "Forest of Echoes."
